

National Sexuality
Resource Center

Summer Institute '09 Application and Scholarship Application

Dates

June 22 – July 17: Summer Institute

(housing will be open Friday, June 20)

July 20 – July 24: Proposal Writing Intensive

(graduate students only; requires separate application)

Tuition and Fees

Fees include all course reading materials and attendance at all Summer Institute guest lectures and special events, unless noted. NSRC offers some scholarship opportunities, and will add details when they are available.

Application Fee : $25 (to be included with application)

Undergraduate Students: $4000 (includes housing and breakfast)

Graduate Students: $2250 (housing not included)*

Proposal Writing Intensive: $500 (non-SI participant)

$250 (SI participant)

Deadlines:

Priority and International: April 1st

Application Fee: $25

Late: May 1st (additional $50 fee must be submitted with application)

Section 1

First Name	Last Name
Email	Alternate email
Main phone number (Please include international code if necessary)	Alternate Contact Number
Street Address	City
State	Zip

Section 2

Please Choose I, II, and/or III

I. Undergraduate Workshop

Please indicate the track for which you are applying:

Teaching Sex

The first track, Teaching Sex, is for participants interested in sexuality education. This track allows participants to engage with theories of learning, the history of sexuality education, and to create their own sexuality education curriculum as a final project.

Service Learning

The second undergraduate track, Service Learning, involves having groups of students work with a local community based organization (CBO) around sexuality activism and advocacy. This track is for participants that want to work closely with local CBO's and get hands-on experience working in the non-profit field

II. Graduate/Professional

Please indicate current educational level/status

- | | |
|--|--|
| <input type="checkbox"/> Post-Bachelor | <input type="checkbox"/> Doctoral |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Masters | <input type="checkbox"/> Post-Doctoral |

III. Intensive Proposal Writing Workshop

Open to graduate students only. Must have a well-defined, concrete, written project (e.g., thesis, dissertation, manuscript, grant, etc.).

Submit a 250 Word or less writing project proposal:

Section 3

Section 2

Are you a U.S. citizen or resident Alien?

Yes No

If no, describe the visa you have/will have if selected for the Summer Institute:

How did you hear about the NSRC Summer Institute?

Please indicate you current educational status:

- High School Diploma
- Earned Bachelors
- Earned Masters Degree
- Earned Doctoral Degree
(no post-doc training)

- Current Bachelors Student
- Current Masters Student
- Current Doctoral Student
- Earned Doctoral Degree
(with post-doc training)

For those with work or training outside of academia, please indicate the number of years of sexuality related work or training you have completed:

- 0-2 years
- 2+ years

Please describe your sexuality training or work experience. If none, please write 'none':

Please list courses, and at what level, you have completed in the field of sexuality studies. If none, please write 'none':

Please list research courses you have completed and at what level, including methodology courses, research design, and statistics. Or, describe research work you have completed. If none, please write 'none'.

A large, empty rectangular box with a thin black border, intended for a personal statement.

With this application please provide a personal statement, of at least 300 and no more than 500 words, describing how participation in the Summer Institute would benefit or enhance your education and training and why you are interested in attending. You may attach a separate page to complete this section.

A large, empty rectangular box with a thin black border, intended for a personal statement.

Section 3

Application Instructions:

Please submit the following postmarked by April 1st for priority and international deadline:

Checklist:

- A completed application
- You must mail a copy of your most recent college transcript you are currently enrolled as an undergraduate or graduate student (It does not need to be official)

OR

- Submit a letter of recommendation/support from your organization, if you are not currently a student.
- A check for the registration fee of $25, non-refundable* Make check payable to the National Sexuality Resource Center.

Deadlines:

Priority and International: April 1st

Late: May 1st (additional $50 fee must be submitted with application)

Send your materials to the following address:

Christopher White, Ph.D.
Director of Education and Training
National Sexuality Resource Center
San Francisco State University
835 Market St., Suite 517
San Francisco, CA 94103

*$25 registration fee will be applied to the cost of attendance if admitted into the SI

International applications WILL NOT be accepted after April 1, 2009